

English I Pre-AP

Pre-AP classes are meant to prepare high school students for Advanced Placement classes, or college-level classes taken in high school. Pre-AP English students study the same major topics as a regular English class but the lessons are taught at a faster pace, more similar to a college class.

Pre-AP students can expect to be held accountable for their learning while reading and analyzing complex texts. Students will practice critical thinking skills and engage in collegiate-level discussions.

Frequently Asked Questions:

1. How will I know if I make it into the class?

After completing the application, your name will be given to our guidance counselors for further review. You will receive your schedule during orientation at the beginning of August.

2. Is it for a grade?

Yes. You will be tested on the summer reading assignment during the 2nd week of school. The test will be the first grade for the first nine weeks. Completing the assignment will prepare students for the rigor of an advanced class.

3. Is this a group project?

No. This is an individual assignment. Students are expected to complete the reading assignment as preparation for the course.

4. What happens if I don't read the book/complete the assignment?

As an applicant for Pre-AP English I, you are expected to complete the reading assignment by the first week of school. Failure to do so will result in placement in a regular English class.
