Halftime Adjustments

The most important time for making adjustments is halftime. What halftime adjustments will you be making with your team and at your school?

* Offensive Adjustments *

Stop, Start, & Continue Analysis (C.O.L.A-H)

Continue to build knowledge Cluster Purpose & Process

Begin after school remediation/acceleration program.

Invite paraprofessionals to professional development opportunities and involve them in collaborative planning.

Adjust enrichment schedule to allow grade levels to have 90 minutes of planning time (back to back) for PLC meetings as opposed to just 45. This will be done once a month

Review collective commitments

Implement second semester writing plan

* Defensive Adjustments *

Review benchmark data and identify strengths and weaknesses amongst teachers and adjust who provides instruction during daily remediation/acceleration block.

Continue to support the needs of students during the Social Emotional Learning block.

Implement monthly 30 minute free break time for teachers. Classes will be covered by instructional coaches and administrators.

Continue weekly meetings with grade levels to set individual and grade level goals. As well as review expectations.

Continue to add to the video library of instructional strategies, provide timely feedback, and discuss lessons during PLC's.

Be intentional about what's covered during after school remediation. Ensure that deficient skills and standards are taught.

* Special Teams *

Monitor daily exit tickets

Rollout School wide test taking strategy (R.E.L.A.X)
