SCHOLARSHIP COORDINATOR

Dear Coordinator:

The Louisiana AFL-CIO will be awarding three $1000.00 scholarships at our 63rd Annual Convention in March 2018.

In effort to reach all eligible participants, we are asking for your assistance.

We would appreciate your forwarding a copy of the enclosed scholarship requirements to all high schools within your parish, requesting the counselors to make them available to all seniors.

All contestants must have their application materials postmarked by January 5, 2018, and mailed directly to: Ms. Julie Cherry, Louisiana AFL-CIO Scholarships, P. O. Box 3477, Baton Rouge, LA 70821. Please note: The postmark deadline cannot be extended.

If you have any questions please feel free to contact me at (225) 383-5741 between 8:30 a.m. and 4:00 p.m.

Thank you very much for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Julie Cherry
Secretary-Treasurer

The Louisiana AFL-CIO will be awarding three $1000 scholarships at the 63rd Annual Convention in March.

All contestants must have their application materials postmarked by January 5, 2018, and mailed directly to Ms. Julie Cherry at the Louisiana AFL-CIO Scholarships, P. O. Box 3477, Baton Rouge, LA 70821. Please note: The postmark deadline cannot be extended.

To be eligible to enter this essay contest, all contestants must be high school seniors residing in the State of Louisiana whose parent/step parent is a member of an affiliated local union in good standing with the Louisiana AFL-CIO.

An essay is required for consideration in this competition. The topic of the essay is “How Do Unions Help Workers in Today’s Economy?” and the rules are as follows:

- (1) Contestants are expected to use encyclopedias, textbooks, the Internet, biographies, bulletins, newspaper articles, the AIL Labor Letter, reports of private organizations or governmental agencies, personal interviews with union personnel (other than their parents), and other research materials deemed appropriate as sources of information. Research materials should be properly cited and documented.
- (2) The contestant’s application must include the following:
 - a. A one page cover sheet showing the student’s name, address, phone number, name of school, name of parent who is a union member, and the complete name, local union number and telephone number of the local union of which the parent is a member.
 - b. All applicants must submit an essay of 1,500 - 2,000 words on the topic. DO NOT put your name on the essay!
 - c. A current copy of the applicant’s high school transcript.

The scholarships will be awarded primarily on the basis of the essay’s worthiness, but the required information will be considered as well. Essays will be judged on the basis of the ideas presented and developed, the quality and pertinence of the reference information employed, and the overall clarity and originality of the essay. The scholarships are offered by:
