ADMINISTRATOR'S CORNER:

We loved having so many of our students and their families participate in Camp Read-A-Lot. We hope you enjoyed reading with your student. As we start the third nine weeks, we continue to have high expectations all while striving to meet the needs of each individual student. Please continue to support your children in their learning. Praise them for good behavior and work habits, help them with homework, and tell them to try their best each day. Doing these things lets your children know that you care about them and their education.
